

LUNCH-HOUR PROGRAMS SET FOR THEATRE

EXPLORING COMMUNICATIONS - a six-week series on Tuesdays at 12.45 p.m. - begins September 13. The first in this series by members of the Centre for Communications and the Arts will be an open house at which students, staff and faculty will have the opportunity to become acquainted with Centre members and to become involved in shaping the Centre's program in theatre, music, film and the visual arts for the coming semester.

Exploring Communications is only one of the regular programs planned for lunch-hours this semester.

Films are planned for Mondays, concerts for Wednesdays and theatre for Fridays. The Students' Council will be presenting programs on Thursdays.

Information on Lunch-hour programs may be obtained by calling Local 3514 in the Theatre, or by watching future issues of the SFU News Bulletin.

UNION NEGOTIATIONS TO START

Negotiations for an agreement between the University and the consortium of 12 unions on campus will begin shortly. The recent decision by Mr. Justice Dohm that the University is an employer under the Labor Relations Act will not be appealed and negotiations will begin upon the appointment of University representatives.

SFU THEATRE COMPANY MEMBERS ON TV

Three members of the Simon Fraser Theatre Company will be featured on the CBUT's new dramatic series, Studio Pacific on Monday, September 5, at 10.30 p.m. How Beautiful with Shoes will feature Blain Fairman as Will, a psychopathic killer; Perry Long, as The Boy, and Owen Foran as Wyker in this television adaptation by Eric Hammerstrom Green of a story by Wilbur Daniel Steele. All three Theatre Company members were most recently seen on campus in performances of contemporary plays by Arrabal and de Ghelderode.

FROSH WEEK ALL SET TO GO

SFU's Frosh Week opens Tuesday evening with an open air dance on the Mall to the music of the "Jabber Rocks." It's from 8.30 p.m. to 1 a.m. - and it's free.

Events, open to all students, faculty and their guests, run through the week to Friday. Here are the other highlights:

Wednesday, September 7

12.30 p.m. - 1.30 p.m.

W. V. S. International Folk Dance
in the Theatre (10¢)

8.30 p.m. - 1 a.m.

Open air dance with the "Brave New World." In the Mall (free)

Thursday, September 8

12.30 p.m. - 2.30 p.m.

Shoe Shine on Campus and Brentwood Mall
Proceeds to Cystic Fibrosis Foundation
Bar-B-Q: Individual merchants donating
To be held behind Women's Dorm.

5.00 p.m. - 8.30 p.m.

8.30 p.m. - 12.00 a.m.

Open Air Hootenany in the Mall (free)

Friday, September 9

12.30 p.m. - 1.30 p.m.

Slides on "Where to Go and What to Do
on the Lower Mainland" by Vancouver
Tourist Bureau in the Theatre (free)

8.30 p.m. - 100 a.m.

"Splash and Mod" Dance with the "Centaur's"
($1 each, $1.75 couple) Pool and gym open.

NEW APPOINTMENTS FOR MODERN LANGUAGES

Here is a listing of new appointments announced recently by Dr. G. L. Bursill-Hall:

Associate Professors: Dr. D. O. Chambers, Mr. T. Hill and Dr. J. H. Wahlgren.

Assistant Professors: Mr. E. Colhoun, Miss Guiti Deyhime, Dr. W. O. Dingwall, Mr. R. G. Fort, Dr. Evelyn J. Harden, Mr. N. J. Lincoln, Miss Julia M. Penn, and Dr. E. W. Roberts.

Instructors: Miss Karen I. Brown, Mr. R. M. Glass, Mr. D. R. Knowles, Mr. D. Nurse, Miss Rachel M. Osbiston and Dr. T. Tomanek.

CHARTER STUDENT PRESIDENT OFF ON WORLD TRIP

Tony Buzan, charter president of SFU Student Council, was setting out today (September 2) on a world trip he expects to last six years. He will take in Europe, India and (he hopes) China.

Mr. Buzan planned the first part of his trip by rail. When the rail strike came he revised his plans to include hitch-hiking.

While away he hopes to work as teacher, life-guard or ditch digger; attend university; and to write. And he hopes to keep in touch with SFU.

Of his year at SFU Mr. Buzan says:

"It was a tremendously exciting year and being initial president was a unique experience for me. I just hope SFU maintains its experimental and forward-looking approach."

What do you take on a six-year world trip? Says Mr. Buzan:

"An air travel bag, one change of clothes, money, tape recorder, camera, books -- and my guitar."

NEW ARRIVALS IN THE BOOKSTORE

- | | |
|---|----------------|
| * Pratt, E. J. (Frye, Northrop (ed.)) - Brebeuf and His Brethren | MacMillan |
| * Baker, Wesley G. - More than a Man Can Take: A Study of Job | Westminster |
| * Tomlinson, Charles - American Scenes and Other Poems | Oxford |
| * Eliot, T. S. - Notes Toward the Definition of Culture | Faber |
| * Paiget, Jean - Psychology of Intelligence | Lita |
| * Paiget Jean - Judgement and Reasoning in the Child | Lita |
| * Paiget, Jean - Language and Thought of the Child | Meridan |
| * Brecher, Michael - The New States of Asia | Oxford |
| * Morris, Van Cleve - Existentialism in Education | Harper |
| * Vahanian, Gabriel - The Death of God | Geo. Braziller |