Discussion Topics: Covers basic concepts relating to the origin, evolution and biological nature of the human species.

In Archaeology 131-3 we will explore the fundamental principles of the evolution and biological adaptation of our own species, Homo sapiens. We will look at evolutionary theory: through genetics and the diversity of modern human populations, through the fossil record of human physical evolution, to a study of behaviours and physical traits we share with other primates. Lastly, we will look at how paleoanthropologists interpret and reconstruct the biological and cultural adaptation of our earliest hominid ancestors.
