Discussion Topics: COURSE OVERVIEW:

This course is an advanced course in cardiovascular and respiratory physiology. The information learned in KIN 205 is the starting point for discussions about these systems. Students are encouraged to review their KIN 205 notes and text (Human Physiology by Silverthorn) prior to the start of the Kin. 305 Lectures. COURSE TIMES & LOCATION:

Monday/Wednesday/Friday: 10:30-11:20. TBA

TUTORIAL TIMES & LOCATION (1 hour tutorial per week): Monday/Wednesday/Friday: TBA TBA

Grading: Tutorials - 10%

Midterms: (3 @ 20% each): - 60%

Final exam: (Cumulative) - 30%

Total - 100%

Students who miss an examination due to exceptional circumstances (such as serious illness or compassionate reasons) are required to obtain a physician's certificate, whereby the physician states that you were unable to write your midterm or final on the set date due to a medical condition beyond your control, or other supporting documents in order to obtain consideration in the course. Such documents must be filed with the Department Chair (via the Biomedical Physiology and Kinesiology office) or Registrar within four calendar days of the date on which the examination was to have been written. Exceptional circumstances must be approved by the Undergraduate Program Committee in order for a student to receive consideration. Students must check the examination schedule when making course selections. Students are reminded that final examinations may be scheduled at any time during the examination period and that students should avoid making travel or employment arrangements for this period. In the event of a missed midterm or final examination Dr. Poburko reserves the right to give an oral examination of the material.
