FONDS DESCRIPTION

Tamahnous Theatre, 1971-1995.

Tamahnous Theatre fonds. - 1971-1994.

3.5m textual records and other material.

Administrative History

The Tamahnous Theatre Workshop Society (later Tamahnous Theatre) was incorporated in Vancouver, BC in 1971. Original members included John Gray, Larry Lillo, Steven E. Miller, Sue Astley, Suzie Payne, Ed Astley, and Jeremy Long. Between 1971 and 1994 the company mounted over 100 productions including many original plays. The company became known in Vancouver in the 1970s for its emphasis on experimental theatre and collective creation and would go on to win numerous Jessie Richardson Theatre Awards in the 1980s. Tamahnous Theatre was the resident company of the Vancouver East Cultural Centre until ca. 1988, and the company toured BC and Canada with its productions and also performed in England and Russia. Tamahnous Theatre officially disbanded in 1995.

Scope and Content

Fonds consists of records related to theatrical productions mounted by the Tamahnous Theatre Workshop Society and general and administrative records related to the company's operations. The fonds contains scripts, stage manager's notes and directorial notes, props lists, correspondence and memoranda, contracts, budgets, touring schedules, original artwork for posters, programs, and handbills, printed posters, programs, handbills, press releases, public service announcements, and other promotional material, clippings of reviews and paid advertisements, audience surveys, drawings and photographs, negatives, audio and video cassettes and reels, accounting records and financial statements, and other records. The fonds is arranged in five series: Scripts (1971-1994); Theatrical productions (1971-1994); General and administrative files (1971-1994); and Tamahnous Theatre Workshop Society photo history (1971-1994); and Audio visual records (1971-1994).

Source of supplied title: Title based on contents of fonds.

Physical description:

Includes: ca. 500 photographs, 2 audio cassette tapes, 12 video cassette tapes, 21 video reels, ca. 350 slides and ca. 350 35 mm negatives.

Immediate source of acquisition: The Tamahnous Theatre fonds was acquired by Simon Fraser University Special Collections and Rare Books Division from Steven E. Miller in 2004.

Arrangement: Fonds arranged in five series based on the physical and intellectual arrangement of the records when they arrived at Simon Fraser University.

Finding aids: Series descriptions and file list are available.

SERIES DESCRIPTIONS

Scripts

1971-1994.

90 cm textual records and other material.

Series consists of drafts and final versions of scripts for plays produced by Tamahnous Theatre, including plays written by members of the company and several unpublished scripts. The series also includes scripts for several plays not produced by the company. Where noted in the file list, stage manager's and/or directorial notes such as diagrams of stage blocking, props lists, and costume illustration are included. Files are arranged chronologically according to the sequence in which the productions were mounted. Scripts of plays that the company did not produce follow scripts of those that they did produce.
